German Studies Minor
2018-2019 Student Learning Outcomes

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Outcome</th>
<th>Assessment Methods</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1       | Presentation evaluated with rubric
Written final exam evaluated with rubric |
| 2       | Analytical paper
Midterm exam |
| 3       | Portfolio
Exit survey |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Outcome</th>
<th>assessment Methods</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1       | German Studies students will identify key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as German Literature or Film) and thereby demonstrate their understanding of aspects from German culture.
Presentation evaluated with rubric
Written final exam evaluated with rubric |
| 2       | German Studies students interpret, situate and contextualize key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as German Literature or Film) and thereby demonstrate knowledge of the historical, intellectual, aesthetic or ethical dimensions present in German culture.
Analytical paper
Midterm exam |
| 3       | Graduating minors in German Studies are able to identify links between multiple courses they have completed in the minor and demonstrate how their coursework was interconnected.
Portfolio
Exit survey |